Jon Sumrall

Jon Sumrall is a Huntsville, Alabama native where he was a two-time all-Alabama performer in high school then went on to play middle linebacker for the Kentucky Wildcats. He also excelled off the field as he was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and earned a degree in finance. Sumrall was one of the most successful head coaches in the country the last two seasons. He guided Troy University to a 23-4 record, two Sun Belt Conference championships and a pair of double-digit winning streaks. He was named Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and was twice named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year honor. Sumrall returns to Tulane after serving as the Grenn Wave's Co-Defensive Coordinator for three year (2012-2014). In 2013, he was a crucial part of Tulane's run to the New Orleans Bowl, the program's first postseason appearance since 2002 and third since 1988. Sumrall also was named a finalist for FootballScoop Defensive Line Coach of the Year. Jon Sumrall is married to Ginny Nixon and the couple has four children. They are happy to be back and eager to work with the Wave!
